Gunshot, black man drops with fear in his eyes he lies
and he cries,
but they hunt down, break him down, society has made
a new force, but it's not new but old, cause the force thinks of a superior race
they wanted back then, but now these fuckers want to break all the necks
of strangers and those who fled from fears to find peace, they never have had, we got but the force is tryin to
stop,

so they go out and bust heads and freedom, peace
and democracy,
so don't close your eyes, take a stand, fight the force
and all their lives!

Chorus:

Fight the force, yeah, you gotta fight the force, fight the force!

No matter colour or race, the problem lies behind their own face, on their minds there's just hate, their fate is life for the human race
so fight any chance for the force to expand and vastly enhance,
their hatred inside against the outside, outside,
outside
politicians, you too, out go and reign and find us a clue to stop the drama we got but the force is not tryin to

stop

and all their lies

Chorus

So strike back the force, go out and stop their brutality course,

if not, then there's terror, freedom and peace is seen no more
cause they don't just bust heads, but freedom peace
and democracy
and all their lies

Chorus
