"I Heard Him Cry"

Feel insanity tonight, lost with one long cry,
try to break the loneliness, no succesful try,
Heard that cry a thousand times, did not see the light,
I didn't know him demanding, one last fatal try.
Now I understand his lonely cry...

Chorus:

I heard him cry,
I heard him cry but I didn't know
I heard him cry, I heard him cry...

Missed to say good bye that night,

haunted by his cry,
I never knew the reason why,
I guess I just thought of "I".
Words were drowned by rain of tears,
didn't know what he said,
I try to recall the happy years,
these minutes just leave me sad...
Now I understand his lonely cry...
