Album: No Excuses

Ever since the world's been turning

It turned away from me

I've been pushed across the planet

To find my destiny

I've been running away from something

That's deep inside myself

I've been running till that someday

When I reached the border's edge

Refrain:

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like that

Push me living on the edge

The weak play the strong out of fear of what's wrong

yeah

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like that

Push me living on the edge

Im sick to death and learned the lesson

I'm still running yet I don't got

Ground beneath my feet - something is tracking me something is wrecking me

I'm still running and I don't have

Time to fall into deep

Refrain:

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like this

Push me living on the edge

Im sick to death and learned the lesson

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like that

Push me living on the edge

Im sick to death and learned the lesson

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like this

Push me living on the edge

The weak play the strong out of fear of what's wrong

yeah

Push me I'm living on the edge

Push me I'm sick of living like that

Push me living on the edge

Im sick to death and learned the lesson
