I think Iâ€™m looking for something
In fact Iâ€™m looking for just one thing
Like in a bar where Iâ€™m lost and I canâ€™t find the exit donâ€™t understand
Iâ€™ve been tracking dead ends
Too many words but lack of content
Now try to understand and Donâ€™t interpret what you canâ€™t

One too many glasses on my way
Hereâ€™s another bottom of this

Refrain:

Empty bottle where is the message
I used to have it somewhere and lost it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Held another friend of mine hostage
Too much sedated
Too much I hate it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Empty bottle where is the message

Well I read the instructions of understanding
Of what the man with the moustache is saying
Another sip of the wisdom fizz
And I get back where the flat line is My senses neutralized, my inner self disguised
I let my visions fly like on drive by Iâ€™m still alive I
Stop telling lies I
Spill the bottle likewise and

One more broken glass is on my way
Spill the sip and smash all the glasses

Refrain:

Empty bottle where is the message
I used to have it somewhere and lost it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Held another friend of mine hostage
Too much sedated

Too much I hate it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Empty bottle where is the message

All my senses neutralized
I let my visions fly
Giving it up, Iâ€™m gonna give it up, Iâ€™m giving it up for life

Refrain:

Empty bottle where is the message
I used to have it somewhere and lost it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Held another friend of mine hostage
Too much sedated
Too much I hate it
Back in the cage, man with the moustache
Empty bottle where is the message
