too many young guns killed in this society of fake ideals as truth reveals itself too many souls on ropes of phoney deals too much marketing is targeting creativity and still MC's here with the department to stand up for the real not too many out there who understand what I'm saying underneath the carpet yeah that's where the truth is laying I've been trying for years to see it straight as it is I've been around the world and now I'm starting to get pissed

this is my last approach and i came back to poach
so come on are you with this can I get a witnezz...

Refrain:

back to kick this are you with this? are you with me?
back to kick this is do you get this? can I get a witnezz...

so come on now do you wanna make that change in your life make your soul be your wife let the word be the knife to cut the linen of lies stopp the whining and cries scare away the dining flies that seize your dying eyes barking is nice but you gotta be biting and fighting your own devil in disguise who's residing inside and start to be living it up
not giving it up
never can Stopp
too clever to flop upsetting the mo
getting the job straight to the top winning the cup

so come on are you with this can I get a wittnezz.....

Refrain:

back to kick this is do you get this? can I get a witnezz...
