There was a time when i
Could breath my life into you
One by one your pale fingers
Started to move
And I touched your face
And all death was erased
And you smiled like an angel
Falling from heaven
Just to be lift up again

And you kissed my lips
With those once cold fingertips
You run me back to life
And all things come to an end
We dont have to pretend
Slowly we fall asleep
And never wake up again

Were so christ like
Were so lifelike
Vampire christ

Were so alive
Were so lifelike
Vampire christ

In the grace
Of this love
We rise in pain
And death is not far away
And soon well sleep
And never wake up again

There was a time when i
Could breath my life
Into you
And alls been come to an end
We dont have to pretend
Slowly we fall asleep

Were christ like

So lifelike
Vampire christ

Were so lifelike
So christ like
A vampire christ
