Shivers run through the spine
Of hope as she cries
The poisoned tears of a life denied
In the raven-black night
Holding hands with
Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with
Your smile
Dark Light
In oblivions garden
Her body's on fire
Writhing to towards the angel defiled
To learn how to die
In peace with her god
Dark light
Come shine in her lost heart tonight
And blind
All fears that haunt her with
Your smile
Dark Light
