Is it so hard to believe the hearts are made to be broken
Cant you see that the beauty of love lies in constant times
Dont you want our hearts to be torn wide open
Wont you feel the heaven in our endless cry

Oh at least you could try
Let me just to be closer
For this one last time
Let me fall into your arms

It could be alright
Dont let us grow any colder
For this one last time
Let me close to your heart

Ever amazed how bright are the flames we are burning in
Ever smiled of the tragedies we have locked deep inside
Arent you obsessed by our hand was on the verge of beginning
Wont you cherish your fear of life that keeps us alive

Oh at least you could try
Let me just to be closer
For this one last time
Let me fall into your arms

It could be alright
Dont let us grow any colder
For this one last time
Let me close to your heart

Let me just to be closer
Wont you let me be closer
Just to let us be closer
Oh, my baby
Oh
You gotta let it closer
Baby, let me closer

Wont you let it come closer
My darling

Oh at least you could try
Let me just to be closer
For this one last time
Let me fall into your arms

It could be alright
Dont let us grow any colder
For this one last time
Let me close to your heart

Oh at least you could try
For this one last time

It could be alright

Let me close to your heart
Baby, let me close to your heart
