

Hacksaw To The Throat "Decayed"

white washed bleeding sky breathing vision slowly dies
enclosed a capsule
no mind no desire
a violent revolution
a poisoned awakening
choking cold... asphyxiation... five deaths... kill temptation worlds wasted on yesterdays tears guided into tragedy stale breath, no promises left to keep

tonight the air is grey with death the end is all I hear remaining a dying echo blinded cold and fading
