Your baby's left, don't feel so blue
Don't cry no river, she wasn't true
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere

She took your kisses, said she'd be true
But now she's kissin' somebody new
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere

You know I told you that she would leave you
You know I told you she'd never care
But when I told you you didn't believe me
'Cos she had you believin', she wasn't decievin'
You though she was playin' it fair

Dry those teardrops, don't look so sad
Some brand new baby will make you glad
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere

Dry those teardrops, don't look so sad
Some brand new baby will make you glad
Anytime, anyplace, anywhere, oh, my God
