[Intro:]

Yea, Ace Hood

Feel me?

What?

Damn

People

[Hook:]

Everything that shines ain't a diamond

Tomorrow is a gift that ain't promised

Nobody's perfect, we all need alignments

And things are understood more with time and

If I die would you miss me?

If I fall would you lift me?

I swear life is such a mystery

I'm livin to become a part of history

[Verse 1:]

Look in the mirror I can see your shame

Know you're hurt but I don't know your name

See you smile just to cover pain

While you patiently waitin for change

Tears runnin like a faucet

Hear the whispers as they gossip

Pretty girl with a cold heart

Life is like a script, she just playin the part

Love found in the wrong place

Self-esteem at it's lowest rate

Mama gone, fuck her whereabouts

Plenty sold dreams, man in and out

Ain't seen her dad like in 7 years

So she usin drugs just to try and heal

If I fuck you would you promise to stay?

She don't know no other way

Bad bitches in my living room

Mind thinkin I'm a get it soon

Thinkin all the ways I'm a get that

Long legs, I'm a have em pinned back

Pretty as a summer day

And cold as a winter night

I pray that every soul gets to shine bright

Lord knows when the time right

[Hook:]

Everything that shines ain't a diamond
Tomorrow is a gift that ain't promised
Nobody's perfect, we all need alignments
And things are understood more with time and
If I die would you miss me?
If I fall would you lift me?
I swear life is such a mystery
I'm livin to become a part of history

[Verse 2:]

Mama told me
Hard head make a soft ass
Dollar bills make a pole dance
She ain't interested in any romance
Better come and get with the program
How was life when yo daddy gone
Only daughter, she bein let on
How the character know she dead wrong
Facin karma, it's comin head on
She think she grown, only 17
Whole world that she never seen
Many men have travelled in-between
Said he love er then flip it like it's a trampoline
Cold world, keep your sweater close
Doin 40 in the Phantom Ghost
Keep the ones who you love close
No assuming but you just never know

[Hook:]

Everything that shines ain't a diamond
Tomorrow is a gift that ain't promised
Nobody's perfect, we all need alignments
And things are understood more with time and
If I die would you miss me?
If I fall would you lift me?
I swear life is such a mystery
I'm livin to become a part of history

I'm livin to become a part of history
