every other minute i'm calling girl you got me out of my square youre killing me, you got me falling to hit it and quit it, was my first intentions till you put it all on me shorty i couldnt believe that it was in you, like that the way you went back, showing me the freak in you now look at you put me through girl i keep calling, texting and calling this aint the way to be, this aint the swag in me (nooo)

youre killing me, you got me fallin you said that you was gon get at me what happen to what we share its killing me, you got me fallin

(fallin) shorty i dont know if you want me i need to know what it is and what its gon be i wanna lay your body right here next to me got the game so i can give you the best of me cant you see that im callin? cant you see that i want to hear from you? and its killing, me killing me, keep playing

girl i keep calling, texting and calling
this aint the way to be, this aint the swag in me (nooo)

what happen to what we share

what happen to what we share
its killing me, you got me fallin

you got me out of the norme and in the thug mood

i use to be that cold now you my therafu
