God bless you pussy niggas

Why the devil just keep fucking with me?
It's like the devil just keep fucking with me
My pockets full of all them dead people
My pockets full of all them dead people

Keep it 100, I'm counting this money, they know what it be Couple them diamonds, them bitches be shining, they know that it's me
Niggas be sleep till I hop on the beat and they wake up the beast
Fuck what you talking, don't like what you say then

Bang, bang, Chief Keef voice nigga
Come through the hood in the Roll Royce, Ghost nigga Hallelujah, praise God, hallelujah, praise God
Thank the jeweler, he ' and send a Muller
Rocking so much ice I'm like a walking cooler
We so damn exclusive they should pay-per-view it
Fuck niggas, stop that hate
Go and get yourself some paper
Fuck around, meet your maker
Next day front page of the paper

Why the devil just keep fucking with me?
It's like the devil just keep fucking with me
My pockets full of all them dead people
My pockets full of all them dead people

Why the devil just keep fucking with me?
It's like the devil just keep fucking with me
My pockets full of all them dead people

My pockets full of all them dead people

Back in the building, my coupe got no ceiling so haters can see

Fresh on the molly, get money my hobby, you got it, capiisce?

Oh God, oh God, not talking Big Sean but I give her the D

Pull up the two seater, I'm balling Lou Kima like Adrian P
Clique full of real niggas

Walk in the club with yo bitch and I bet that I still get her
Real shit, paranoid I keep a full clip

Woke up this morning, I'm counting this money

I'm out of my mind, I'm just tryina survive

Got to go get it, no need to decide

Benjamin Franklins all in my eyes

Some people round have the devil inside

Stick with my niggas, we never divide, no

'Cause I don't really trust niggas

Just might say a prayer for you fuck niggas

Why the devil just keep fucking with me?

It's like the devil just keep fucking with me

My pockets full of all them dead people

My pockets full of all them dead people

Why the devil just keep fucking with me?

It's like the devil just keep fucking with me

My pockets full of all them dead people

My pockets full of all them dead people
