People were people
So their nightmares came through
Now our world is full of the nightmares left from you

Your screams were loud
But now you're sound
Asleep, for I helped guide you down.

Down from the throne that you're all on
Welcome to the one track minded age
Welcome to the one track minded

So sure of yourself now your self's gone
Welcome to the one track minded age
Welcome to the one track minded

Ages and numbers
Pass all of us by
With empty hands extended
Never satisfied

Your screams were loud
But now you're sound
Asleep, for I helped guide you down.

Down from the throne that you're all on
Welcome to the one track minded age
Welcome to the one track minded

So sure of yourself now your self's gone
Welcome to the one track minded age
Welcome to the one track minded age!
