"The Dawn Of The Dying Sun"

Yet calm, rejoiced, I am
The so lifegiving daylight went
Then night, so pure, came
With the shining, ancient, moon
So cold and twilight grey
Thou shalt see no tomorrow come
Beware the future misery
Read the shadows as they pass
A freezing wind a promise bring
The dawn of the dying sun
Chaos dwelling secretly
Ten centuries of night...
Eternal!!
Earth turns to a frozen stone
All things shall end
Yet thorns shall grow

Throughout the dust of death
Bringer of chaos be greeted!
Harvest your souls from your chariot of ice
Beware the future misery
It is written in the night
An eclipsing wind, a promise brings
The dawn of the dying sun
A massive lust-like rage I feel
Yet calm, rejoiced, I am
The so lifegiving daylight went
Then night, so pure, came
With the shining, ancient, moon
So cold and twilight grey
