RISE!!

high above the crystal sea the lake of fools

FLY!!

fly on the wings of your soul invoke the daemon that dwells at the core of your soul the beast of your spirit gaze through the eye of the beast you have become through the twisted gates of the infinite

FEEL!!

feel the force you possess touch the stars sail the silver starshine in the warship of your mind the spirit world, the astral crown your power has no bound

"Rosepetals. thrown before my feet by the angels Lillies.. thrown before my feet by the black ones, fallen from grace"

DANCE!

dance in the dreams of the dying

PRAY!

pray in the dreams of the dead you are one with the mist of the universe one with the essence of all ride the dragon. ride the dragon through the tangled web of the mysteries of the human mind
