Lashed to your knees by a serpents tongue forced to eat the lies Jehovah. messiah.
the bloodstained sword shall crush your heart the wild blood of a beast runs through the veins. even of a newborn child the blood is ancient and so is the spirit withinenlighted times. the values of the brave and the values of the valuable are spoken with contempt but when the heads are bowed to kiss the feet of Christ decay and blindness remain as the only truth .of those who are slaves lost paths of a realm so long denied lost ways of warriors pride drown in the well of madness you creature which sin is resection of thy nature for you are a predator! and the dispute of such a fact is mockery of your existence oohh nemesis be thy name you sweet revenge
