Stared at your face on the pillow
Listening to the ways of your slumber
To watch you sleep is a dream
No doubts will come and ponder

Over the rippled cheets you're lying there so peacefully
I wish each day a new to wake up next to you

Good morning baby
Did you sleep okay
Let's not leave our bed for the whole day
Last night I was afraid threat you wouldn't stay
Good morning baby it's a lovely day

Face to face in the morning my first hello is to you
Your drowsy smile and wrinkled eyes will get me in the mood
Slept like a newborn baby with my baby next to me
Coiled up into his arms there's no where I would rather be

Over the rippled cheets you're lying there so peacefully
I wish each day a new to wake up next to you

Good morning baby
Did you sleep okay
Let's not leave our bed for the whole day
Last night I was afraid threat you wouldn't stay
Good morning baby it's a lovely day

Ooh yeah yeah yeah yeah...
