Please don't stare too much - it's so revealing
Just one secret touch - could cut my feelings
Just one stolen kiss...might change my mind, ohhhh

We knew it must end - this crazy story
Can we still be friends - will we be sorry?
There's no easy way...when love's unkind, ohhhh

I'll try not to cry - as I say goodbye to you
I'll tell you no lies - coz I cannot hide the truth
I'll try not to cry - as I say goodbye to you - it's so hard to tell you - it's so hard to tell you - now it's farewell

All the days we had - The pain and pleasure
Good times and the bad - I'll always treasure
They'll keep all their charms - They'll still be mine, ohhh

You won't see a tear - It's only raindrops
I'll conceal my fear - Until the pain stops
Hold me in your arms - Just one last time, ohhh....

I'll try not to cry - as I say goodbye to you
I'll try not to cry - coz I cannot hide the truth
I'll try not to cry - as I say goodbye to you - it's so hard to tell you - it's so hard to tell you - now it's farewell
