Oh don't tempt me now
'Cause you really got me blown away with those looks you've thrown
No, I ain't here alone
So you really gotta go away before I'm weak to the bone

So tell me, whatcha gonna do?
You should think it over now before you make that move
So player, whatcha gotta say?
Ain't a kind of player here for a roll in the hay
So player. whatcha gonna do?

I could never trust a man
With his tail up in his hands
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

I could never trust a man
Don't wanna get hurt again
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

Oh, just let me know
Tell me when you're done talking all about yourself
So, I've gotta go
Your smoothy booty talk ain't never gonna open my shell
So player, whatcha gonna do?

I could never trust a man
With his tail up in his hands
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

I could never trust a man
Don't wanna get hurt again
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

No oh oh ohâ€¦
So tell me, whatcha gonna do?
So player, whatcha gonna do?
So tell me

Baby, you don't wanna be all over my thing
Tell me what you know about the real passion
Maybe you'll please me like the whole night long
Then you'll take off when you're gonna get none

Tomorrow I don't want to be a fling of the past
Don't wanna get to know you but a lovin' that lasts
Maybe you think you can throw me some bone
But I'm not a dog, I'm a kitty that purrs

I could never trust a man
With his tail up in his hands
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

I could never trust a man
Don't wanna get hurt again
If you got it, don't be slick
If you're cool, don't rub it in thick

I could never trust a man, oh no no
I could never trust a man, oh no no
I could never trust a man, oh no no
I could never trust a man, oh no no

My stomach can't tickle tonight
I ain't up for a fickle ride
My stomach can't tickle tonight
I ain't up for a fickle ride
