Lets get this party started!
Get smashed gate crash
Get smashed gate crash

It's friday night and we've just arrived
There's a fair few girls but mostly guys
Got supplies, now we're in the drive
Hope we got the house number right

Knock loud then ring the bell
Door swings and the music swells out
It's quite catchy if you could tell
In the hall welcome to hell

Welcome to our world we are the wasted youth
And we are the future too
Welcome to our world we are the wasted youth
And we are the future

Lets get this party started
And rip the place apart
Cut the brakes, text your mates
Lets tear this house apart

We're drinking, screaming, shagging
We don't care what we're doing
Don't care when they come back
Our parents will be screwing

People being sick on the landing carpet
Smoking up in the outside she'd
Passing out in the upstairs toilet
Getting laid on the parents bed

Smashing up all the porcelain china
We drank the alcohol cabinet clean
But still that felt minor
Till we put the hi-fi through the tv screen

Welcome to our world we are the wasted youth
And we are the future too
Welcome to our world we are the wasted youth

And we are the future

We feel so damn invincible
We are not responsible

Get smashed gate crash
Get smashed gate crash
Get smashed gate crash

People being sick on landing carpet
Smoking up in the outside she'd
Passing out in the upstairs toilet
Getting laid on the parents bed

Smashing up all the porcelain china
We drank the alcohol cabinet clean
But still that felt minor
Till we put the hi-fi through the tv screen
