The town he came from it was typical England
His mother loved him but she loved her new husband
The teachers at school found him out a no-hoper
Just another waste of teenage strength - a solider
Quick Friday evening, he takes a sip from the bottle
He's with his boys again and they're up for trouble
A pack of wolves always he better be hunting,
A local man made the mistake to confront them.
And as he sits there up alone in his room,
Head in his knees blood on his hands, through
A heartless attack and he's so ashamed
Covering his eyes of the poor man's gaze
Forever it will stay

Set this straight, it's not out your grasp,
Fix yourself up bruv, and step off the warpath
Your path is never preordained,
No two lives need ever be the same.
GO! Take a leap of faith
You can turn and fight, need to jump this life,
You could escape free now from these confines.

GO! Three years ago she'd had a baby at fifteen
The next minute was a repeat of history,
One bedroom council flat , the father beats her,
but as the time past he disappeared.
Six months later and he's back on the scene,
He's lost his job and and needs her to feast
Still got that glint in his eye still got that vicious right hand
That was the time to make her stand
Making her stand

Don't jump I know this time is the past.
Fix yourself up, grab on onto the life raft,
Your path is never preordained,
No two lives need ever be the same.
GO! Take a leap of faith
Take a leap of faith, take a leap of faith

Go take a leap of faith

Your conscience jilted your options fading,
You have no allies or a team
Search for these fragments of esteem, of esteem

GO! Don't jump I know this time is the past,
Fix yourself up grab on onto the liferaft.

GOGO! Set this straight, it's not out your grasp,
Fix yourself up bruv and step off the warpath
You can turn and fight, you can jump this life
You can escape free now from these confines
Your path is never preordained,
No two lives need ever be the...same
NEVER BE THE SAME

GO! Take a leap of faith, take a leap of faith
Take a leap of faith, take a leap of faith
Take a leap of faith
