Let's go...

At home on that friday night
And his weekends been made
Because he's just been paid
He'll be out tonight
Cuz it's a hadouken! gig
He's got his tickets and it's gona be big
Gelling his hair and he's finally ready
His sheets are washed and there hype in his belly
Only 17 and he's up for the game
Straight out the door
Meets his boys on the train

What he don't know
Is that he's on a roll
Cuz when he's at the gig
He's gonna meet a girl
There gonna loose there mates
There gonna stay out late
Cuz it is love in the crowd.

Sick music and loud volumes
Plastic cups of beer and hormones
Bright lights and rippin' guitar
At the gig where he met her
And theirs sweat on the celing
Party and the way he's feeling
Crowds up and everyones screaming
At the gig where she kissed him.

At home on the early evening
She's getting dressed up
With her mates in the room
It's the fifth outfit she's tryed on
Slaps on her nicest perfume
The girls tell her that she looks hot
They drink alcho pops and neck a few shots
Time up and there ready to rock
The shops sells 20 they can buy fags from the shop

What he don't know

Is that he's on a roll
Cuz at the gig
He's gonna meet a girl
There gonna loose there mates
There gonna stay out late
Cuz it is love in the crowd.

Sick music and loud volumes
Plastic cups beer and hormones
Bright lights and rippin' guitar
At the gig when he met her
And there's sweat on the celing
Party and the way he's feeling
The crowds up and everyones screaming
At the gig where she kissed him.

So there inside the venue
It's quarter past 8
Got an hour till the band takes stage
She looks over and spots our boy
He's lost his mates and he's acting coy
Sure the party won't great
Wont wait so she leaves her mates
She walks over and as she gets closer
He looks and turns and notices her...

(All this time x5)

The lights go down
The air is thick
I'll search for words
Atmosphere is sick
Silhouettes appear
The crowd all cheer
It feels like they where waiting years...
