Hostem repellas eternus

Pacemque dones et protinus

Ductore sic de praevio

Vitemus omne noxium

Hostem repellas eternus

Pacemque dones et protinus

Ductore sic de praevio

Vitemus omne noxium

A scream deep in the night

As the firstborn awakes with the sign

A little dreamer... but are dreams always to define?

"Do not fear, my son! Awake the dragon inside

For he may guide you, being the worlds hidden eye

Through a dark time, when mankind is bleeding within

Oh little dreamer..."

Hostem repellas eternus

Pacemque dones et protinus

Ductore sic de praevio

Vitemus omne noxium

Analyzing the midnight sky

And in the early morninglight

He just feels the warming heart

Beating in his head

To declare the reasen why

Should I survive this sadness

"God reality back in my mind" - beating in his head

It's a very dark night

Nobody outside

Silence wraps up the land as suddenly:

Hoof beats destroy all sleep

And a wooden coach loaded with innocent ones

Accused and sentenced, their end has begun

And their eyes can't cover their fear... can't cover their

And he thinks he must be dreaming
Lifts up his head, sees the sky is gleaming
Heaven burns as red as blood
And all they have caught, they won't return
The sky reflects, from superstition they burn
When will they ever learn... They never return!
Ein drohendes Pochen in tiefschwarzer Nacht
In Trumen geseh'n und nun wahrgemacht
Die Diener der Kirche sind hier, sie zu holen
"Brennen sollst du mein Kind! - Der Herr hat's befohlen!"
For he may guide you, being the worlds hidden eye
Als am Pfahl sie brennt, nun schwarz ist ihr rotes Haar
Niemand mehr zweifelt, da des Teufel's Weib sie war
Geschlagen, getreten, bespuckt und belacht
Die Flammen dem Leiden ein Ende gemacht
A little dreamer... but are dreams always to define?
Die Flammen dem Leiden ein Ende gemacht
Ein Ende gemacht
Und wieder pocht es in tiefschwarzer Nacht
