Put your hang ups in the closet
Put the fears you have in a box
Come on baby pull up your socks
And sunbeams will shine
They will give you light in the dark
Don't give yourself a head start

Cause the radios beating its tune
All the crackles through the waves
And there ain't nobody to blame
So keep trying baby be brave
Don't listen to what they say
Keep going you've come all this way
It's evident do as you do
Cause your just so beautiful

Keep love as your golden rule x 4

Keep loving the way you do

Cause that's what those stars are saying
And count your many blessings
And sunbeams will shine
They'll give you light in the dark
Lets get ourselves a head start

Cause the radios beating its tune
All the crackles through the waves
And there ain't nobody to blame
So keep trying baby be brave
Don't listen to what they say
Keep going you've come all this way
It's evident do as you do
Cause your just so beautiful

Keep love as your golden rule x 8
