"Over And Over"

I'm sick and tired of this pretending
I thought we had this understanding
I come to you
You come to me

You're so uptight
I'm going insane
But its never enough
I keep wanting you
More and more each day
(I really really want to do this)

Over and over
Over again

The night is long
I'm feeling restless
I'll bring you down here with this sickness
There is no cure there is no escaping

The end is near
We're almost done
But it's never enough
I'll keep on wanting you
Tonight and tomorrow
(This moment will never be)
