talked to you tonight to sort things out the right way we used to be when you were still here with me

I wanted you to know if you have loved me so then why didn't you let me know 'cause I didn't wanna let you go so why don't you just runaway from here 'cause I don't want you to get hurt by me this way you loved me to the point where I was lost but then I couldn't catch you there right there

so just runaway
runaway from here
won't you runaway

and I will never know if we could ever go
the way that we should be.
