I think you might remember me, you used to know me well

Before you were introduced to fear and doubt
I was with you on the cold dark day when you were all alone
And you thought that things would never turn around

It was me that moved the mountain that was standin' in your way

I believe you want me back so I will wait
My name is Faith, (My name is Faith)
My name is Faith, (My name is Faith)

I noticed you've been lookin' at that star up in the sky
You're searchin' for a light to guide you home
You think you need a reason just to trust a simple prayer
I am here when you think I might be gone

I am the companion of the happiness you'll find
And I promise I am always ever close
My name is Hope, (My name is Hope)
My name is Hope, (My name is Hope)

We are the voices that still whisper in your heart
And if you listen carefully you'll know just where we are Carriin' the promises that heaven's not so far... away

I'm the one who speaks the loudest, I'm the keeper of them all
I was born before the world was ever here
I am everywhere and everything you'll ever need to know
I'm the passion in your laughter and your tears

I'm the healer of the broken the forgiver of your soul
And I am ready to descend just like a dove
My name is Love, (My name is Love)
My name is Love, (My name is Love)

We are the voices that still whisper in your heart
And if you listen carefully you'll know just where we are

Carrin' the promises that heaven's not so far... away

(My name is Faith), My name is Faith
(My name is Hope), My name is Hope
(My name is Love), My name is Love
