Looking in your eyes
Took me to a place I'd never been
All that's on my mind
Is how much I want to see you again,
Give me just one more tomorrow
And my life would be so complete.

Let me live another day
To have another night like this,
See the moonlight in your eyes
Feel the promise of your kiss.
I want to stay right here beside you,
That's my only wish.
Let me live another day
To have another night like this,

Since I've found your love
There's no turning back to yesterday.
You're my one desire.
No one else has ever touched me this way.
Let there always be tomorrow,
In our hearts someday, somehow.

Let me live another day
To have another night like this,
See the moonlight in your eyes
Feel the promise of your kiss.
I want to stay right here beside you,
That's my only wish.
Let me live another day
To have another night like this,

If the world runs out of time
I'll have one thing on my mind.

I want to stay right here beside you,
That's my only wish.
Let me live another day
To have another night like this
