Crazy how you can run away
Lookin' out for a better day
Can you decide
What you're feelin'?

Don't wait to take what's there
And then make it what you want
All that you need to have
Is right there inside your heart

No need to look around
When you could be lookin' in
You say you'll find
You will find it

Love is here and will always stay
It's you who chooses to look away
You can decide
What you're feelin'?

Don't wait to take what's there
And then make it what you want
All that you need to have
Is right there inside your heart

No need to look around

When you could be lookin' in
You say you'll find
You will find it

Make it what you want
Make it what you want

Don't wait to take what's there
And then make it what you want
All that you need to have
Is right there inside your heart

No need to look around
When you could be lookin' in

You say you'll find
You will find it

Don't wait to take what's there
And then make it what you want
All that you need to have
Is right there inside your heart

No need to look around
When you could be lookin' in
You say you'll find
You will find it
