Someone sent you roses, Karen.
Yeah that's twice this week isn't Karen?
You're a lucky girl Karen.
To have someone who cares about you so much Karen.

Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret.
Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret too.
And my secret is you.

What kind of candy do you like?
And what is your dress size Karen?
Why do I want to know?
Well I guess I am just curious Karen.

Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret.
Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret too.
And my secret is you.

I remember one time ago we were walking down the beach at night.
We were both looking at the stars up above.
And you said hey look up there and I looked up there.
And you said well that star must be there as proof of our love.

Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret.
Karen has a secret admirer. And I have a secret too.
And my secret is. My secret is. My secret is you.
