

Half Past Forever "How Long"

Shadows fill the places where I used to be
And now I know the pictures I hold on to
Are gone away, they're gone away
And I'm just getting older
Maybe getting older brings me closer to you

All my days are spent away
In daydreams and all I wonder is...

How long, how long
How long till I get to be with you
How long, how long
My heart is longing for you

All my life's been leading to this:
I've been dreaming
I know that life was meant for so much more
All the dreams and hopes to be
Are just dreams of something bigger
Maybe all this dreaming brings me closer to you

How long, how long
How long till I see your face again?
