Well, its almost 10 AM you're still talking about your sex life

Put on your shoes and pants and start walking

I'll see you on your way out

Hey You! I got a reason to feel the way I'm feeling and I'm not naive and I Fought you and now I'm leaving

Its almost 10 pm and I'm thinking about my sex life

Put on my horns and tail and start drinking

I'll see you on my way down

Hey You! I got a reason to feel the way I'm feeling
And I'm not naive and I fought you and Now I'm leaving

I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I did not notice you there

I'm sorry! I'm sorry, you must have

Mistook me for someone who cares
