Aaa, aaa

Smell your world when you come
I won't make a victim
I lie awake and I'm forsaken

From all the holes in my time
You saved up for this true lie
The devil bides her time in waitin'

And still she comes

Crystallized in paranoia
Lost yourself inside her madness
Beast has glazed your being
With it's torture

And all the faults in your life
The suffering can't be mine
The curse will grow with what you prey for

And still she comes

She's callin'
I'm fallin'
She makes me mine
Still callin'
I'm crawlin'
She is benign

Smell your world when you came
Now I am a victim
I lie awake, I swim inside you

And still she comes

And still she comes
Still she comes
(Aaa, aaa)
(Aaa)
