Visit "Hearts Of Darkness" on MotoLyrics.com

With a friend to share your angry life
Deadly secrets to resolve your strife
Death remaining on each thought you owned Blackened hate in legacies renowned

Love and death, lure your prey
Thought by thought, from your hate

Recanted murder in a place of peace
Hide the truth from one that is deceased
Did you believe so little in your life
To kill a friend to satisfy your plight

In my crime, I am living
I can die, unforgiving

Lost in trials, no repentance
Trapped in time, serve my sentence

No remorse, youth got old
Wasted life, blood ran cold

Point the finger at the only thing you truly loved
On your way to ending life, tonight
Took too much to the end
In denial, deceived your friend

See myself, through your eyes
You are all, I despise
As I bleed, what I gave
Put me now, In my grave
