Am I Responsible For Holding The Candle That Set Fire
To The World
And Let Loose All it's Burden
From The Room Where Time Stands Still Functioning On Pride And Will
We Stand Alone So Culpable For Burning Eden

(chorus)

I won't be poisoned by your ghost
I won't be captive to obsession
Until you learned that this is all pretending
So much for a heart in freefall
Tonight we offer your possession
Real out for your story book ending

So here we buy back our reality
The Weight Of Words Now Fleeting
Like The Venom From Inside Of Me
With Bullets Dancing Through Air
The Chaos Isn't Everywhere
But Finding Silver Linings In The Death Scene Is Our Ticket Out Of Here

(chorus)

Words Come Out Like Bitter Pills
A Mouthful That Is Killing Me
Vocalized And Fluid
In This Vanity Parade
These Words Come Out Like Photographs
All Celluloid And Memory
Each One A Turning Moment
Set Loose Inside Our Veins
