Red lights are flashing on the road
The sound of calls
Will be the last sound that you'll hear
The one sound you'll remember for the
Rest of your lifetime cuts you down by the size
60 seconds later we'll be talking through
6 feet of loneliness
This is our last goodbye
Until my dream i wonder why
It only took one shot straight into his chest
But it went out the other end
And in my heart and straight through yours
We said we'd live forever
Today must be forever
Cause my friends out cold
My best friends out cold
Lets live on second chances
Lets live on second chances
Don't regret not wishing for more
This is our last goodbye
Until my dream i wonder why
It only took one shot straight into his chest
But it went out the other end
And in my heart and straight through yours
And it hurts so bad it's killing me inside
Inside
Where we carved our names
We'll live forever
We'll die together
Hold your head up in shame
Its okay to try
Don't be afraid to cry
This is our last goodbye
Until my dream i wonder why
It only took one shot straight into his chest
But it went out the other end
And in my heart and straight through yours
Where we carved our names
We'll live forever
We'll die together
Hold your head up in shame

Its okay to try
Don't be afraid to cry
