Early morning step outside my head
Sit here in the plundering
Shake me out of bed, I
Get a feeling that I can't escape
I dive into the ocean waves, they carry me away.

I've got this feeling that I won't be leaving
There's no tomorrow tonight is all we have

Cheers to the good times
Saturday at satellites
California coastline
The perfect life
One on one at night
Straight to the city lights
This moment is mine
This is the perfect life

Chasing sunsets, neon colored skies
The cities heart is beating with mine keeping perfect time
Every seconds a moment that pass you by
You have to realize, it's the moments you miss
That make up your life
Don't let em' pass you by

I've got this feeling that I won't be leaving
There's no tomorrow tonight is all we have

Cheers to the good times
Saturday at satellites
California coastline
The perfect life
One on one at night
Straight to the city lights
This moment is mine
This is the perfect life

You could teach me everything there is to learn
You could take me to the corners of the earth
But if you ask me do I really want to stay

There is only one thing I would say

Take me back
Oh just take me back

Cheers to the good times
Saturday at satellites
California coastline
The perfect life
One on one at night
Straight to the city lights
This moment is mine
This is the perfect life
