My arms they're getting tired
From holding this relationship up
Ten fingers isn't quite enough
Your heart is getting heavy
You're on my knees
I need another pair
Who are you
Who are you to care
Who are you to care
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
And now we'll burn
We'll both burn like
We'll both burn like we see
We'll see the other side
Another life
Another day
Another day for me to care
Who are you to care
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
The world is falling apart
The world is falling apart
The world is falling apart
The world is falling apart
The world is falling apart
The world is falling apart
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
This could mean goodbye for us

This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
This could mean goodbye for us
This might be no tomorrow
Maybe another life will save your heart
