Why don't you pack?
I'll take you back to the countryside
Now's the time
I've got a little place in mind

We don't need no neighbors
Making noise at night, dogs that fight
You'll sleep like a child
The city steaming miles away

Never thought you'd see the good life
Let me tell you how it feels
We can let our hearts be open wide
So all our love will come through

Up and gone, we'll be moving on
When the morning comes
This is the way
I heard that it's supposed to be

I can almost see the flowers
Growing there, taste the air
We've waited awhile
I never thought we'd see the day

Never thought you'd see the good life, oh yeah
Let me tell you how it feels
We can let our hearts be open wide
So all our love will come through

And as you never thought you'd see the good life
Let me tell you how it feels
And we can let our hearts be open wide
So all our love will come through

And as you never thought you'd see the good life
Let me tell you how it feels
We can let our hearts be open wide
So all our love will come through

And as you never thought you'd see the good life
Let me tell you how it feels
