What's the point of standing
Ten feet tall if you never learn to fall
If you want to win
You've got to play the game

But if you lose, you must accept the pain
So don't reach for the sky

If all you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven

You know the reason
Makes us human
But our love makes us believe
We can conquer all

I give you fire and you give me rain
I ask for nothing
And you give the same
And I'd give you the sky

But all you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven

All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is heaven
All you want is
