Just look at you and me

Yea we've had some fun,

Don't you agree?

Now that we have come this far

Time to stop the game and

Make a start

I want you to take this seriously

But all you do is show inhumanity

You hurt me oh, but I can't

Hurt you back

Baby don't you know I've got more

Heart than that

I can't hide the way I feel

Help me please, baby please help me

We've reached the borderline

Nowhere to go but down

If we can't turn our world around

We've reached the borderline

Maybe it's not too late

Only we can choose our fate

I tried but I can't loose the crazy pain

I wish that it would go so I can live again

You may or may not know that i'm

Beside myself

Oh you know there's only you and

No one else

I can't hide, it's sad you see

Something that could feel so good

May never be

We've reached the borderline

Nowhere to go but down

If we can't turn our world around

We've reached the borderline

Got everything to gain

If only we can stop the pain

The sky is falling

Falling again

Keep on reaching

Keep believing
