Walking in time to the ringing bell
Water stained where the raindrops fell
On an island of green in a city sea
And traffic sound breakers roll in to me

I never thought I'd be up this morning
But London is calling to me
And I never thought that I'd find somebody
I never be caught, never be caught so easily

London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?
The place the chance, the feeling of
London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?

London and love were in your eyes
Luck came the moment we realized
That mornings are better spent in bed
And some things are better left unsaid

I never felt so close so quickly
?Cause no one gets this close to me
I never thought that I'd find somebody
I never be caught, never be caught so easily

London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?
The place the chance, the feeling of
London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?

London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?
The place the chance, the feeling of
London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?

London, luck and love
What else could I be dreaming of?
