I should have heard you talking
Now I'm a dead man walking
I should have paid more mind
To the little things, the little things

Why is love so complicated
Maybe that's the we made it
Just tell me you won't go say it isn't so
Like on the radio

And if I could I'd write that song for you

If a song could make you cry
If a song could make you say goodbye
Could it change you mind
If a song could make you stay, ooh

It's a backward chain reaction
It's a lack of satisfaction
That makes our love breakdown
To the little things, the little things

Gone 180 degrees
Come back to me
Just tell me you won't go
Say it isn't so like on the radio

And if I could I'd write that song for you

If a song could make you cry
If a song could make you say goodbye
Could it change you mind
Then a song could make you stay

If a song could break you down
Then a song could turn our love around
Can you hear that sound
Then a song can make you stay

And if I could I'd write that song for you

If a song could make you cry

If a song could make you say goodbye
Could it change you mind
Then a song could make you stay

If a song could break you down
Then a song could turn our love around
Can you hear that sound
Then a song can make you stay

If a song could make you cry
If a song could make you say goodbye
Could it change you mind
Then a song could make you stay

If a song could break you down
Then a song could turn our love around
Can you hear that sound
Then a song can make you stay
Then a song can make you stay
