"Say These Words of Love"

They say that the voice of true love now runs through Just like a rough and raging river
Always on the move
Some men can show it
Can slow that river down
Only love for you darling
Can turn that course around
Don't worry about the past
We're gonna make our true love last
All you've got to do is

(Chorus)

Say that you love me so much
Say that you thrill to my touch
These sweet words could mean so much to me
All you've got to do is say these words of love

Words of assurance can be all that I want to say
The magic of a simple "I love you"
Can take the sadness away
Don't be too proud to show your emotion
There's no better way to express your devotion
The happiness you bring could make me feel like a king
All you've got to do is

Repeat Chorus
