When did you stop loving me

When did I stop loving you

When did the blue skies start to Gather clouds

When did understanding start

Closing down

One day it seemed right, then

Tomorrow it was gone

Oh yeah the lovelight burned down

Too far, burned too far

When did you stop loving me

When did I stop loving you

When did you stop missing me

When I was far away from you, oh...

Why do the grey skies still keep

Coming on

Any way the wind blows it

Feels a little colder now

Was it in this life we had the

Perfect day

Lately all the laughter seems so

Far away, so far away
When did you stop loving me
When did I stop loving you
Blue skies are hiding now
Leaving my life lost in doubt
There are seasons, high and low
Does it matter - there you go
When did you stop loving me
When did I stop loving you
Blue skies are hiding now
Leaving my life lost in doubt
Yea, I loved you but now you're gone
Does it matter, baby, I've got to know
When did you stop loving me
When did I stop loving you
