Blue skies for today
Don't need no more lonely nights
All the black and blues have made me
Yeah, they made me see the light

Down and out but always dreamin'
Gonna dream the love to grow, oh

I think the sun was in my eyes
But this time, the time won't pass me by
Lucky on the second try, lucky on the second try
This time, the time won't pass me by

Feel so lucky, baby
Just to have another try, oh yeah
When love comes callin', tears stop fallin', hey
I believe I know the reason why

Though I gave your love away, you brought it back
And doin' that has made me see

I think the sun was in my eyes
But this time the time won't pass me by
(But this time time won't pass me by)
Lucky on the second try, lucky on the second try
But this time, the time won't pass me by
(But this time time won't pass me by)

I see the sunlight in your eyes, oh yeah
But this time, the time won't pass me by
(But this time time won't pass me by)
Lucky on the second try, lucky on the second try
But this time, the time won't pass me by
(But this time time won't pass me by)

Oh, the past I can't replace, oh
Don't you know I see the future in your face
Can it be, can it be the bad times were what it took to see?
But the love we had was true for you and good for me

Oh girl, it won't pass me by

(And this time time won't pass me by)
And this time the time won't pass me by
(And this time time won't pass me by)

And this time won't pass me by
(And this time time won't pass me by)
Oh baby, this time the time won't pass me by
(And this time time won't pass me by)

(And this time time won't pass me by)
I think the sun was in my eyes
But this time, the time won't pass me by
(And this time time won't pass me by)

(And this time time won't pass me by)
Lucky on the second try
But this time, the time won't pass me by, oh girl
(And this time time won't pass me by)

(And this time time won't pass me by)
It's takin' so long
(And this time time won't pass me by)
You gotta be strong, oh baby

(And this time time won't pass me by)
A new sky is for today
(And this time time won't pass me by)
I won't let 'em sleep away

(And this time time won't pass me by)
Well, it's takin' so long and we gotta be strong
(And this time time won't pass me by)
Take it out, take it home, time won't pass me by

(And this time time won't pass me by)
I think the sun was in my eyes
(And this time time won't pass me by)
But this time the time won't pass me by
