When my world is turning

When it's turning upside down

When all I see is rain

When I think the night won't end

I just think of you

And I can see the sun again

Wherever would I be without you

If I didn't have you

Whatever would I do now, baby

Wherever would I be without you

I'd be nowhere. I'd be nowhere

When the dreams I dream all seem a million miles away

When I'm sure I'll never win

When it's looking like I've lost my faith

I just look at you baby

And I got a reason to believe again

Wherever would I be without you, tell me

If I didn't have you

Whatever would I do now, baby

Wherever would I be without you

I'd be nowhere, I'd be nowhere

Without you to love me

Just be wasting time

Going out of my mind
