I saw on the tv we're sellin' arms to the enemy

So he can blow us all down

When we charge with the cards in our hands

And men in power places are resigning

'cause even in high seats the woman is still fighting with the man

And tho I thought the time of the tough guy was just about over

Here comes another savior to stir the soldiers in the field

But what do the generals think about while the soldiers are dying

'cause the rallying cries don't reach 'em

And if they could feel they'd say

What's gonna happen to us

Does your shrink say find out who you are

Before you try to become a part of me

I'd think you'd want to anyway

She can't help you live out a middle-class fantasy

But can she talk you into leavin'

When your heart tells you to stay

Just when I thought the era of the guru was over

Here comes another savior to stir the soldiers in the

What does the teacher care about while the student is trying

'cause your crying mind don't reach her

If she could feel she'd say

What's gonna happen to us
