If there's enough to go around
If there's enough to go around why can't I get mine
If everybody knows they've been lied to
If everybody knows it, then why are they waiting on a gas line

I think it must be a test to weed the best from the rest
But whatever they're doing is driving us out of our minds
It drives us out of our minds
But we always take it 'cause

Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care
What a way of thinking, yeah

Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care

The sun is free enough
It's shining there in the air, out of our reach
But if they can, they'll find a way
To make us pay for what we get
When we lay out on the beach

I think it must be a test to weed the best from the rest
But whatever they're doing is driving us out of our
minds
They drive us out of our minds
But we always take it 'cause

Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care
What a way of thinking, yeah
Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care

Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care
Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care

Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care
Who said the world was fair
Or that we should care

I ain't gonna take it, no
You ain't gonna take it, no
I ain't gonna take it, yeah
Who said, who said, who said
